

Behavior Policy for Solano County Law Library:

Please be considerate of others while using Solano County Law Library. In return, library staff will make every effort to maintain a safe environment.

Threatening, illegal, or violent behavior is prohibited, including but not limited to:

1. Offensive comments intended to intimidate or threaten.
2. Stalking, uninvited physical contact, threatening gestures, hitting, or throwing objects.
3. Engaging in or soliciting sexual acts.
4. Theft or damage of library or personal property.
5. Carrying weapons, incendiary devices, pepper spray, or stun guns.
6. Smoking or use of tobacco products or electronic cigarettes.
7. Possessing, consuming, selling, or being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs.

Disruptive or unsafe behavior that interferes with library operations or another person's ability to use the library is prohibited, including but not limited to:

1. Leaving children under the age of 10 unattended by a responsible caregiver.
2. Failure to wear shoes, shirt/top, and pants/skirt.
3. Bringing bulky articles into the library, other than those necessary to assist individuals with disabilities or to transport files.
4. Blocking entrances, exits, or walkways.
5. Excessive or unreasonable noise (applicable also to personal devices)
6. Exhibiting unsanitary hygiene or an odor that is so offensive so as to constitute a nuisance to others.
7. Soliciting for money, clients, or donations.
8. Those conducting legal research or related work on public access terminals will be given priority. Law Library staff is the final arbiter.
9. Eating or consuming beverages without a lid.
10. Bringing in animals other than service animals into the library.
11. Standing on chairs; standing or sitting on tables or counters.

Any person displaying these behaviors may be given a warning, asked to leave the library immediately, or have their library privileges suspended.

Any person viewing sexually explicit materials will be immediately suspended from the Law Library for 30 days.

The Director of Library Services and his/her designated staff are authorized to interpret these rules in accordance with applicable law and to ensure appropriate behavior of all persons in the facility.