9. Old Business

a. E-waste old computers stored in library basement to make room for new technology & equipment

- Mr. Pinon asked for direction from the board for e-wasting the old technology in the basement to make room for the new technology. He proposed an employee and himself removing hard drives from old computers and destroying them to keep patron data confidential. Mr. Pinon motioned, Mr. Cross moved, Mr. Garcia seconded, the motion passes.
- Susan Werrin stated that the library has a surplus of office chairs and old/broken furniture. They take up a lot of room and are not being used.
- Mr. Pinon answered, he believes that the e-waste company also takes office furniture. Working furniture will be examined closely before deciding to sell or donate furniture. Mr. Pinon would like to clear as much space in the basement as possible because it is very crowded.
- Mr. Pinon, Mr. Cross and Mr. Garcia are all in favor of this.

10. New Business

a. Ratify Maintenance Contract Moreno Construction

- Mr. Pinon states that the maintenance contract was compiled with info from interviews with contractors and list of repairs from the library staff. Mr. Pinon interviewed 3 candidates, Moreno Construction accepted the contract. This contract is different from a regular contract because Pedro Moreno will come in to the library on a routine schedule to perform routine repair tasks.

- Mr. Pinon advises the board to look at the contract and consider hiring a maintenance provide in the future for the library.
- Term of the Moreno contract is effective October 1. Work on the Miller building has already begun due to rain damage on the roof. Mr. Pinon and Mr. Moreno agreed on 30 hours per week, 3 days a week, with a 10 hour day as a cap. The contract is for 3 months and will end on December 31st. Hours will be scheduled as needed during operational hours, but accomodations will be made if need be. The staff will be able to speak up about noticed problems and address Mr. Moreno about them (Carnegie Library included).
- A list of repairs to be made was submitted by Susan Werrin and Catherine Dunn.
- Mr. Pinon asked for a motion to approve the contract, Mr. Cross moved, Mr. Garcia seconded, the motion passes.

11. Board Announcements

- Mr. Pinon announced that a new interim director will be introduced within the next couple of weeks. He will be introduced to staff by Mr. Pinon.
