

a bond to do business in Solano County.

Solano County Library offers free notary services at certain branches. View the events calendar at www.solanolibrary.com for the latest date.

<https://calda.org/findanlda>

Use CALDA to find legal document assistants

<https://www.sos.ca.gov/notary>

Access a list of notary publics in California

Where can I find California codes, regulations and opinions?

<https://courts.ca.gov/opinions>

Find opinions of the California supreme and appellate courts

<http://leginfo.legislature.ca.gov>

Find California's constitution, codes, legislative bills

www.ca.gov

Find the California Code of Regulations and state agency pages

<https://www.uclawsf.edu/academics/library/caballots/>

Includes California propositions from 1911-present

What about city laws?

<https://libguides.law.chapman.edu/calmunicipalcodes>

Find municipal codes for cities in Solano County and statewide

How about other states or federal laws and regulations?

www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts.aspx

Information regarding the federal courts

<https://www.govinfo.gov/>

Find U.S. codes, Code of Federal Regulations, bills, Federal Register, etc.

www.law.cornell.edu

Find administrative and statutory codes throughout the U.S.

<http://www.loc.gov>

Provides bill information, resolutions, Congressional Record, etc.

Is there a legitimate and free child support calculator online?

<https://childsupport.ca.gov/calculate-child-support/>

CDSS' free child support calculator

LEGAL SOURCES ON THE INTERNET

Solano County Law Library

600 Union Avenue

Fairfield, CA 9433

(707) 421-6520

Fax: (707) 421-6520

Monday-Friday: 8AM-4:30PM

ABOUT US

Founded in 1891, Solano County Law Library provides public access to legal resources. You may print or photocopy materials for a cost. We do not give legal advice. Find even more legal self-help resources in English and Spanish at www.solanolibary.com/hours-and-locations/law-library.

Where can I find court and county information for Solano County?

www.solanocounty.gov

Find the Solano County Code and department information (e.g., D.A., Public Defender)

www.solano.courts.ca.gov

Find Solano County Superior Court's case information and local rules/forms

What legal services are available to me locally and elsewhere?

www.lsn.net

See what LSNC's Vallejo location has to offer

www.solanobar.org

Provides details about the Solano County Bar Association's mediation services

www.lawhelpca.org

Helps Californians find legal aid referrals

www.lsc-sf.org/

Offers free legal and social work services to Bay Area children and young adults

www.calegaladvocates.org

Legal Aid Association of California's site

www.americanbar.org

American Bar Association's website; includes national lawyer referral services

I need to hire an attorney. Where do I start searching for one?

www.calbar.ca.gov

State Bar of California's site; learn about an attorney's background and complaint procedures (attorney/non-attorney)

www.martindale.com / www.lawyers.com / www.avvo.com

Martindale-Hubbell's network; find lawyers by specialty and location (U.S. and internationally)

www.hg.org/lawfirms.html

Created by Lex Mundi; also allows you to find lawyers in U.S. and internationally

I'm representing myself. Where can I find free court forms and self-help guides/articles?

www.courts.ca.gov

Find standardized California court forms and self-help materials (other languages available)

www.saclaw.org

Sacramento County Public Law Library's website; find self-help guides and printable forms (i.e., pleading paper, motion templates for non-standardized forms)

www.findlaw.com

Find state law, news articles and more

www.nolo.com

Find law-related articles and information about Nolo Press materials

You can also access Nolo Press titles electronically via the database Legal Information Source (accessible 24/7 with a Solano County Library card at www.solanolibary.com).

<https://prisonlaw.com/informational-resources>

Prison Law Office's guides related to prison and criminal-related procedures

www.prisonerswithchildren.org/

Find information for incarcerated or newly released parents and their advocates; includes a statewide resource list

I want to hire a legal document assistant or notary public. Where do I start?

Visit or contact the Treasurer-Tax Collector/County Clerk Office at 675 Texas Street, Suite 1900 in Fairfield at (707) 784-7485. The office maintains a list of legal document assistants that have paid